IMPORTANT BUSINESS NEWS

MUSIC AND DRAMA
Edward Pepp, author of "The Prince Charming" is writing a play for Mrs. Leslie Carter.
John Luther Lou, author of "Kasasa," the play that Mrs. Leslie Carter produced, claims that Mrs. Carter owes him over $4,000 in royalties.
Lola Fuller has signed a contract for the appearance of herself and five of her pupils at the Metropolitan opera house next season.
Madame Gaskin's re-engagement for the Metropolitan opera house will permit the prima donna to devote but a limited portion of next season to the concert field.
Another of George Bernard Shaw's plays, having the title, "Press Cuttings," has been forbidden production in England by the censor of plays.

Elita Proctor Otis, after a short season in vaudeville, has resumed her role in "The Girl from Rector's," at Weber's theater, New York.
"The Circus Man" will be produced by Elva and Eberharder at McVicker's theater, Chicago, August 28. "The Circus Man" is a dramatization by Eugene Presbury of certain stories of Holman Day.

Mme. Melba has received an offer for a series of private concerts in India in the palaces of the great ruling princes. Mme. Melba to name her own terms. No conditions are imposed as to the programme or in regard to the assisting artists. The diva will fulfill her engagement on her way home from Australia or early in the following winter.

Mme. Sembrich has for several years made her home in Berlin, although she has spent but a few weeks there each season. Now that the prima donna has moved to Switzerland it will be far easier for her to reach the mountains in winter. It is to her six weeks spent each year in mountain-climbing that Mme. Sembrich attributes her splendid health.

The authorities of the Royal opera house in Berlin last week accepted a production of a grand opera in three acts entitled "Pola," the libretto of which is by Randolph Hartley, and the music by Richard Strauss. Both composer and librettist are Americans; the opera is upon an American Indian subject, and the work is the latest American composition of its kind that has ever been accepted by a court theater in Europe.

A Kansas Editor's Trip Abroad.
We made a mistake in letting it leak out that we contemplated a trip across the Atlantic. That is, we did it. We value the time it takes to answer all the questions propounded. To save a little time in which to get ready for the trip, we will answer a few of the questions that will be asked by those who call on Edward VII or William III. We have no intention when we return of writing a book or getting up a letter. We are not going to spend very much time in cathedrals and picture galleries. We can go to church at home, and never since the World's Fair times we have hankered after picture galleries. No, we do not understand a word of either Dutch, French or Italian. We have deliberately made up our mind that if the effete people of Europe desire to profit by our intelligence and general information they will have to learn English as she is spoken in Kansas.

No, we shall not climb to the crater of Vesuvius to see the eruption. Having been mixed up with First district politics for a more or less number of years, we can imagine Vesuvius would be pretty tame to us.—Hulton Record.

Only Solid Fact.
"The trusts are ghosts," declares Senator Heyburn of Idaho. And, as a Massachusetts statesman asserted, "other day." "This consumer is a myth." The only solid fact seems to be "Cost of Living, and that gets harder every day.—Puck.

Unusual Forbearance.
It is charged that half a dozen men regulate the meat supply of the community. Wonderful forbearance must be necessary to prevent two of the capitalists from getting together to freeze out the other four.—Washington Star.

Chance for Business.
Kansas expects to harvest 70,000,000 bushels of dollar wheat. Which suggests an idea to men who sell automobiles, pianos and oriental rugs that Kansas is a good state to work in.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

How Characteristic.
Prof. Mike Donovan, Mr. Roosevelt's sparring partner, says in his new book, "He must hit somebody." The "he" referred to is Mr. Roosevelt.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Change of Masters.
If it isn't one thing, it's another. Just as we begin to feel easy about the coal bin along comes the annual scare about the ice chest.—Boston Herald.

Nothing Novel, After All.
There is nothing novel in a honeymoon in a balloon. Most honeymoons are spent in the clouds, anyway.—N. Y. American.

Hardly a Fair Example.
Dr. David Starr Jordan should remember that Count Boni and Prince Helle are really not fair samples of French manhood.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Out of the Question.
Mr. Bryan says that democrats ought to strive to be "pure." It is hopeless to demand that they shall be consistent or logical.—N. Y. Tribune.

PERSONS TALKED ABOUT

John D. Rockefeller has caused to be constructed on his estate a rainbow fountain that throws out the rainbow colors whenever the sun is shining.

On a handsome monument recently erected in Battle Creek, Mich., in honor of the late Dr. McKeith, a noted horseman, is a finely executed portrait of his favorite horse, "Ead W."

Senator Burkett of Nebraska was a playboy at 10, a student at college at 17, a graduate at 20, a school teacher, lawyer and member of the house at 30, and a United States senator at 37.

Gertrude E. Curtis, a colored girl of Bradford, Pa., who graduated from the high school in that town nine years ago, is now a full-fledged dentist. The Philadelphia Record says that she is believed to be the first colored girl to become a dentist in this east.

Dr. Belva Lockwood, one of the earliest and greatest of workers in the franchise for women, this country has ever produced, has just been awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by Syracuse university. Dr. Lockwood is a resident of Washington, D. C.

President Taft was a good Greek scholar himself, at Yale, and in the Georgia boy convicted of stealing a 40-cent Greek textbook must have appealed to him as an extraordinary example of an appetite for a classical learning. At any rate, the boy was pardoned.

Miss Katherine S. Godney, '09, Oskaloosa, who has completed her course in sociology at the University of Wisconsin, has been awarded a scholarship in the school of civics and philanthropy at Chicago for next year. She will investigate the conditions of the unemployed.

Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell holds the only honorary medical degree ever given by Oxford university, and he is also the only one who won the Paracelsus Confetti. He is the son of St. Michael and St. George. He is a surgeon, magistrate and patron saint in Labrador.

Hobson's New Fame.
Captain Hobson is said to be the only congressman who has not cancelled his Chautauque engagements.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Taft's Policies.
President Taft defeated his brother, Charles P., on the Chevy Chase links. His golf clubs know no brother.—N. Y. Herald.

Yale and Harvard Flags, Oars, Canes, Horns and Post Cards for the races.
All sizes of Flags, Lanterns, Crepe Paper, Garlands, Bells, Flag Napkins, Paracelsus, Confetti, Historical and View Post Cards, Souvenirs, Taft Buttons, Etc., for the celebration.
